

Week One

Day 1 – Read Ephesians 3:20-21

As one of the key verses surrounding our Building Bridges campaign, please pray and meditate on this scripture. Picture in your mind all that you can imagine God doing through our Church – then realize that God can surpass your biggest dreams for us!

Day 2 – Read Romans 15:13

As we face difficult situations in our lives, we can be robbed of our hope. But as we trust Him, God will bring peace to those who seek Him.

Debbie Kuykendall

Day 3 – Read John 3:16

Thank God for everything He is doing in your life. He will set you free. Amen!

Tommy Gillette

Day 4 – Read Hebrews 12:1

In looking through our church history recently, I am humbled to be part of that history. FBC had modest beginnings, formed at a time when flat empty space was the view “north of the river”. Yet a body of believers had the faith to build a house for God to reach the northland and the world. Pray that we continue the race that our founders began and be a bridge of God’s love and grace.

Ann Roll

Day 5 – Read Philippians 4:4-7

I don’t deal well with change, and there have been a lot of changes in my life recently. These verses are full of God’s reminders that He is always there, always in control. Every time I read them, God speaks to me in new ways about His constancy and the constant joy He provides.

Joy Mason

Day 6 – Read Psalm 51:7

I’m starting to realize that no matter how many times I stumble, or how often I fall short, my “FATHER” GOD is right there to pick me up and wash me clean. Thank You, Father God.

Pamela Sweeney

Day 7 – Read Nehemiah 6:9

When I was a baby everyone thought I would die, but God said no.

Matthew Kuba

Week Two

Day 1 – Read Jeremiah 1:5

The most recent answer to prayer that comes to mind is how the Lord has protected the life of little Lainie Edinger. She was prayed for before she was born and most recently for God to bless her and help her to survive her premature birth.

John Fuehring

Day 2 – Read Romans 12:6-8

God's faithfulness and goodness are shown in that He has given me talent to work with my hands and a place to use those talents to His glory.

Anonymous

Day 3 – Read Galatians 6:9-10

Take inspiration to live a good and holy Christian life, putting others first and doing God's will for you instead of following the ways of the world.

Alan Kuykendall

Day 4 – Read Psalm 132:15

When I was in college, a scholarship I was receiving ended. I wasn't sure how I was going to pay for school. Right before school started, another scholarship I was receiving unexpectedly increased almost the same amount as the one that had ended. Praise God!

Deana Mason

Day 5 – Read 1 John 1:9

In many ways, I am the thief who was the one who belittled Jesus. I have repented numerous times; will God forgive me each time? The answer is yes!

Lloyd Lapore, Jr.

Day 6 – Read Phil 4:11b-13 and 1 Tim 6:6-8

God reminds me how much "stuff" I have that does not bring contentment. I've met families in Mexico and Southeast Asia with so little. God has given me much--not to hold onto, but to give away.

Mike Ellis

Day 7 – Read Joshua 21:45

God didn't promise days without pain, laughter without sorrow, sun without rain. But He did promise strength for the day, comfort for the tears, and light for the way.

Al Bowman

Week Three

Day 1 – Read Isaiah 40:31

Throughout the years, at times I have felt worn out and empty, but God has always lifted me back up. I love the image of soaring on eagle's wings.

Brenda Ellis

Day 2 – Read Deuteronomy 32:4

He is faithful in an unfaithful world. He is just in an unjust world. He is unchanging in an ever changing world.

Loni Sojack

Day 3 – Read Philippians 4:19

God supplies all my needs. He takes care of the simple every day needs, the more complex needs of my heart and life, and the deep, profound needs of my soul.

Vivian Howell

Day 4 – Read Psalm 103

The Creator of the heavens, earth, and all we see loves "me" ...and loved me first before I ever knew Him.

Thank you, Jesus. What a blessing.

Charlene Feedback

Day 5 – Read Deuteronomy 7:9

Nothing really dramatic about my walk...only a gradual understanding of God's goodness and majesty as day in and day out, He was faithful. His people, through their lives lived well, have been a tremendous influence in my life.

Sandy Skaggs

Day 6 - Read Galatians 5:22

The fruits of the Spirit have always been a guide for my life and have always felt our church depicts the same spirit.

Gary Clemens

Day 7 – Read Isaiah 55:8-9

Thanks be to God for his love and grace; for the experience of total life transformation when I'd never imagined it was needed!

Tom H. Bowlin

Week Four

Day 1 – Jeremiah 29:11-13

During transition and difficulty, God is always there for us. He already knows what lies ahead... and knows that hope is there for us. God is Good!

Debbie Kuykendall

Day 2 – Read John 3:16

This scripture helped me out a lot. Pray people can see something in this world before they mess it up!

Damiana Martin

Day 3 – Read Psalm 23

God's strength, love, and patience, and God's Holy Spirit have given me new meaning in my life and my goals to help and serve my fellow man, and to be like Jesus. Through all things God's strength shows truth.

Bill Battin

Day 4 – Read Psalm 146:6

God remains faithful in every aspect of my life, my wants, my needs, my job, my son, my life. He gives me fresh renewed joy every day. Thank you, God.

Melissa S Wells

Day 5 – Read James 1:2-3

It's easy to be faithful to God when everything in our life is perfect. It's our faith in hard times that determine our character. Staying true to the Lord will provide perseverance and strength.

Valinda Vandervelden

Day 6 – Read 1Thessalonians 5:6

God has been faithful to see our needs are met – He is my provider.

Liz Kuba

Day 7 – Read Malachi 3:10

I always try to live by the grace of giving and I continually see the "...Flood gates of Heaven opened and the pouring out of so many Blessings..."

Don Demaria
